

EXAMPLE ACCOUNTABILITY QUESTIONS

1. Have you spend regular time in prayer and reading the Scripture this week?
2. How has God spoken to you this past week?
3. What did God do in worship at church for you this past week?
4. How have you taken care of your body this week?
5. How did you serve the Lord and His church this week?
6. How did you find ways to encourage others rather than tear them down?
7. Did you accomplish any goals this week that we can celebrate?
8. How are your relationships with your family? Are you respecting your family and spending quality time with them?
9. Did you find an opportunity to reach out to non-Christians this week and witness to them?
10. Have you given your 100% best at your job this past week?
11. Have you allows any people or situations to rob your joy?
12. Have you told any gossip, half truths, or outright lies, putting yourself in better light to those around you?
13. BIG FOR MEN (but still applies to women): Did you look at or experience anything that would cause you to lust this week? What did you do with these thoughts?
14. BIG FOR WOMEN (but still applies to men): Did you build or tear down others or yourself through your actions, lingering thoughts, or words?
15. Have you lied in any of your answers today?